

Chester Arts & Literary Weekend

Saturday, February 10 — Chester Meeting House, 4 Liberty Street
Connecticut Storytelling Center Presents Music & Storytelling, 7:30 p.m.

This 90-minute show filled with stories and music is a benefit for the Connecticut Storytelling Center. $10 per ticket, pre-purchase using the link below or at the door the night of the performance.

Jennifer Munro

Liz Gruber

Joe Flood

Jennifer Munro and Liz Gruber will be performing, as well as musician, Joe Flood.

Recipient of the Barbara Reed Award from the Connecticut Storytelling Center and the National Storytelling Network's Circle of Excellence Award, Jennifer Munro is a master storyteller whose funny, original stories will touch your heart, lift your spirits, and make you laugh.

Whether sharing stories with children or adults, whether folk tale, myth, personal story or contemporary literary tale, Liz Gruber is a passionate conduit for story. Her storytelling makes connections across time, experiential, ethnic and national boundaries drawing her audience into a shared experience and dissolving the differences that often separate people.

Songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Joe Flood has traveled a long musical road. He has released five albums under his own name and been featured prominently on several albums.

Connecticut Story Tellers

Tickets